

The People's Tribunal. QUESTION VII.

Q. During your political career, Mr. Hearst, you have made use of a surprising number of abusive personalities. Of Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, you said, "A loose-tongued demagogue." A flagrant tax-dodger, not hesitating to resort to affidavits in order to free himself from a burden which every citizen is bound to bear. Within the past few weeks you have called men opposed to you, "croton-bugs," "rats," "shivering mice," "water bugs," "knives," and "criminals." Mr. Hughes, whom a few months ago you praised unreservedly, you have called an "ANNIMATED PEATHERDUSTER." Is this your idea of a SQUARE DEAL?

A. If the great ABRAHAM LINCOLN were alive to-day, and OPPOSED to you in the present campaign, what kind of a SQUARE DEAL would you give him? What EPIPHET would you apply to HIM, Mr. Hearst?

We've Exactly 85 of These Handsome $25 Coats to Sell To-Morrow at $15

BELIEVE US, the Coat is far handsomer than the picture—for it does not do the garment justice. A genuine $25 model—which is exactly what we obtained for a similar lot not long ago. Now the maker takes a loss—and we've eighty-five to sell for $15.

Material is English kersey; cut 50 inches long and very full, so as to fall in a graceful ripple. Neck is effectively trimmed with velvet and two widths of braid; full sleeve and deep cuffs similarly treated; lined throughout with gray or black satin.

This is one of the most successful models we have had this season, it having attracted a great deal of attention and comment. At $15 they are a genuine bargain.

Two Models at $23.75: Both smartly designed. One of fine imported broadcloth, 50 inches long; full, loose coat, collarless neck of velvet, prettily scalloped and outlined with two widths of braid; full pleated sleeve; turn-over cuffs. The other model is of panne cheviot; three-quarter length; double-breasted, with crocheted buttons; semi-fitted back; seams strapped with bands of broadcloth; stitched flat collar of same, inlaid with velvet and lined all through with splendid satin.

$10.00 for a new $14.75 model of all-wool cheviot; three-quarter length; double-breasted, with crocheted buttons; collarless neck of velvet; elaborately trimmed with many rows of soutache braid; yoke and sleeves lined with excellent satin.

More Magnificent Values in Trimmed Dress and Street Hats; Simply Trimmed Hats and Turbans.

THE BEAUTY of the offering lies in the newness of the models. Not hats carried from early Fall—but right fresh from our own work-room. The greatest compliment they could possibly pay us is the fact that we have sold hundreds upon hundreds this week.

TO END CAMPAIGN IN BIG HUGHES RALLY

Monster Meeting Will Be Held in Durland's Riding Academy Monday Night.

A monster final rally of the Republican campaign in this city will be held next Monday evening in Durland's Riding Academy under the auspices of the West Side Republican Club. The principal speech will be made by Charles E. Hughes, who will then wind up his whirlwind campaign.

Republicans all over the city and particularly on the upper west side are growing more and more enthusiastic as Election Day approaches, and therefore it is expected that the big academy will be crowded to the doors long before the meeting opens at 8 o'clock. Not only are Republicans anxious to hear Mr. Hughes' last speech, but it is certain that a great many citizens who have in the past been actively identified with the Democratic Party will be there to listen. Hector M. Hittings, president of the West Side Republican Club, will preside, and among the other speakers will be Lieut. Gov. M. Linn Briggs, Timothy L. Woodruff, Walter M. Chandler, Attorney-General Julius M. Mayer, and John E. Hedges.

The campaign committee has been indefatigable in its efforts to make this the greatest meeting of the campaign, and in order that every man, woman and child may have an opportunity to hear the speeches it has been decided that no tickets will get reservations after 7:45
